

Call for 2019 submissions

The Pretoria Student Law Review (PSLR) is now accepting original research articles, and the traditional reviews published in the past, for the 2019 (Vol 13) edition on any topic in law and its related disciplines.

About the PSLR

The PSLR is a peer-reviewed journal that publishes academic work on any topic in law. It is a journal run by students and publishes the work of students.

Submissions

All law students across Africa and abroad are invited to submit. Contributions should be in an article format and the word count should not exceed 9 000 words. The PSLR style guidelines for the submission of articles can be accessed on our website.

Prize

Contributions from UP students which are accepted for publication in the 2019 edition will be considered for the Yunus Mahomed Public Interest Law Award.

Deadline and submission

The submission deadline is 14 June 2019. Submissions should be sent and queries directed to pretoriastudentlawreview@up.ac.za.

Website

Visit our website for more information.

