

Invitation

BOOK
LAUNCH

13 JULY
2023
0930 - 1230 (EAT)

The Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria and the Faculty of Law, University of Nairobi cordially invite you to a launch of two publications recently published by the Pretoria University Law Press. The two publications will be launched in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa (Maputo Protocol). The Maputo Protocol turns 20 on 11 July 2023. The books being launched are:

The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: A Commentary* Edited by Annika Rudman, Trésor Makunya and Celestine Nyamu Musembi.

This Commentary aims to provide a systematic commentary of provisions of the Women's Rights Protocol to elucidate their meaning and implications in improving women's rights in Africa. It traces the legal, political, and economic foundation/justifications of the Protocol and its provisions. It analyses normative standards developed and institutional efforts made by the African Commission, the African Court and AU states to improve the protection of women's rights in Africa.

The Impact of the Maputo Protocol in selected African Countries* Edited by Susan Mutambasere, Ashwanee Budoo-Scholtz and Davina Murden.

This publication is an update to the collection of essays previously published by the Centre for Human Rights assessing the impact of the African Charter and the Maputo Protocol (previously published in 2012 and 2016). In this edition, the focus is only on the Maputo Protocol and traces the impact of the instrument on the legislative and policy framework, judiciary, academia and general impact on the women in 16 African Countries.

The launch will be in hybrid format, and this invitation invites you to attend the book launch virtually on

13 July 2023
from 0930-
1230 (EAT)

Please click the button below to register for your participation

REGISTER

