

INVITATION

High Level Panel on Advancing the Human Rights of African Women
on the occasion of the 15th Anniversary of the Maputo Protocol

July 2018 marks the fifteenth anniversary of the adoption of the groundbreaking human rights instrument, the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa (Maputo Protocol). As of April 2018, it has been ratified by 40 countries.

The 15th Anniversary celebrations calls for ratification by the 15 remaining countries, domestication and implementation of the Protocol at the national levels by member states. The high level panel will focus on gains, achievements, challenges and opportunities provided by the Maputo Protocol in improving the status and lives of all women and girls in Africa.

Event information

Date: Wednesday, 2nd May, 2018

Time: 16:44- 17:45

Venue: International Conference Centre (Palais des Congrès)
Nouakchott, Mauritania

Enquires: patience.mpani@up.ac.za

The event will be followed by a cocktail

