

Policing and Vulnerability
Exploring Issues of Vulnerability, Policing and Oversight

9 - 13 September 2019

| Monday 9 September 2019     |   |  |
|------------------------------------|---|--|
| 9.00 – 9.30                        | Welcome Remarks, Registration and Course outline   | CHR-AMShEr-APCOF   |
| 9.30 – 13.00                       | Human Rights and Policing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Regional human rights framework: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Luanda Guidelines</li> <li>○ Principles on Decriminalisation of Petty Offences</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Developments in protecting vulnerable groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ case of Resolution 275 SOGI –</li> <li>○ General comments &amp; Study Report by special mechanisms of the ACHPR</li> </ul> </li> </ul> | Sean Tait - APCOFProf Michelo Hansungule - CHR   |
| 13.00 – 14.00                      | Lunch   |  |
| 14.00 – 15.30                      | Policing key populations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The scope of criminalisation &amp; consequences on dignity, access to services, stigma and discrimination;</li> <li>• Protection despite criminalisation: what does it mean during policing?</li> <li>• Policing sexuality and privacy rights: where do we struck the balance?</li> </ul>   | Berry Nibogora, LLM HRDA Alumni, Head of Programmes at AMShErDean of Public Health Faculty, UP   |
| 15.30 -17.00                       | Achieving the rights of key and vulnerable groups through a public health approach  |  |
| Tuesday 10 September 2019   |   |  |
| 9.00 – 11.00                       | Dignity and Diversity of Key Populations - <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Policing Sexuality and Gender</li> <li>• Unpacking gender and binaries in patriarchal settings;</li> </ul>  | Juliet Mphande, Social Marketing, communication, branding and related-advocacy expert;AMShEr Media and communications ManagerPierre Brouard, Centre for Research on AIDS, UP |
| 11:30-13:00                        | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Law enforcement working with Key Populations: LGBTI – SO&amp;GIE as a ground of violations: what forms does violence take and what are state/police obligations? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Sex Work: Choice of work as a ground of criminalisation &amp; violations?</li> <li>- Drug Use – Recreation as a ground of criminalisation: the war against drugs versus possession of drugs for personal use.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> | Munyaradzi Gatumba, CoC Netherlands – CSO perspectivesSAPS Officer – SAPS perspective  |
| 13.00 – 14.00                      | Lunch   |  |
| 14.00 – 16.00                      | Police Accountability   | Sean Tait APCOF  |
| 16.00 – 17.00                      | Assignments for Group work  |  |
| Wednesday 11 September 2019 |   |  |

|                                   |   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|---|
| 9.00 – 10.30                      | Policing vulnerability in real life: from theory to practical experience and challenges   | Pieter CronjeFormer police officer and Attorney   |
| 10.30-12.00                       | Righting the wrong: the role of the Judiciary in providing remedies to victims of Police violence: Case of sexual and gender minorities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Due process in carrying out law enforcement and investigations;</li> <li>• Access to justice for victims (vulnerable groups) of police violence</li> </ul> | Justice Monica Mbaru, High Court of Kenya   |
| 12.00-13.00                       | Claiming rights of vulnerable groups through litigation and legal aid in southern Africa  | Tashwil, Lawyer at SALCLawyer at Southern Africa Ligation Centre  |
| 13.00 – 14.00                     | Lunch   |   |
| 14.00 – 17.00                     | Disability – Issues at stake and from theories to practiceInclusive policing for disabled persons – what should be done better?   | Dagnachew B. Wakene   |
| Thursday 12 September 2019 |   |   |
| 9.00 -17.00                       | South African Commission on Humana Rights Dialogue on Police and Human Rights   | Course participants will, be invited to attend the Dialogue at the SAHRC offices in Braamfontein A separate agenda is attached. |
| Friday 13 September 2019   |   |   |
| 9.00 – 10.30                      | Beyond the public health approach to effective protection of human rights of key populations - Human rights versus public health: conflict or complementarity?  | Sibongile Ndashe, Academic writer, lawyer and feminist activist;Director of Initiative for Strategic ISLA                   |
| 10.30-11.00                       | Presentation of Group work  | Group 1   |
| 11:00-11:30                       | Break   |   |
| 11:30-12:30                       | Group presentations: cont'd   | Group 2&3   |
| 12.30-13.00                       | Closing and certificates  | AMShEr-CHR-APCOF  |
| 13.00 -14.00                      | Lunch   |   |