

CONFERENCE: 40 YEARS OF THE AFRICAN CHARTER ON HUMAN AND PEOPLES' RIGHTS HONOURING THE MEMORY OF CHRISTOF HEYNS

Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria in collaboration with the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights was adopted by the OAU Assembly of Heads of State and Government in Nairobi, Kenya, on 27 June 1981. Twenty years ago, in March 2001, the Centre for Human Rights, University of Pretoria, organised a conference with the title 'The future of the African regional human rights system' to reflect on the achievements of the system and the need for reform to further human rights on the African continent. Papers from the conference were published in the newly launched African Human Rights Law Journal. Among these papers were 'The African regional human rights system: In need for reform?' by Professor Christof Heyns, the then director of the Centre for Human Rights. Professor Heyns concluded his article by noting that engaging in debates about reform of the African regional human rights system 'is to exercise a form of ownership, and to say that since the Charter belongs to all of us, it is up to us to continuously ensure its improvement.' Professor Heyns continued his engagement with the African regional human rights system, and with international human rights law more broadly, over the next two decades until his untimely passing in March 2021, aged 62.

To mark the 40th anniversary of the Charter, and in honour of Professor Heyns' legacy, the Centre for Human Rights, in collaboration with its partners for the event, the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights and the African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights, invites you to an online one-day conference on Friday 2 July 2021.
